REMARKS

25X1X

1. A rear detail of about 100 men wearing red-bordered black epaulets was located in the Mudra Kaserne, Riesa (N 52/ E 81), on 14 May 1950. Twelve windows of the barracks were lighted during the evening. [REDACTED] 25X1B
2. The Freiherr von der Goltz Kaserne was completely dark during the evening. No troops were seen to be quartered there.
3. Six soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, apparently on guard, were observed in the ration supply depot opposite the Freiherr von der Goltz Kaserne.
4. Only a guard detail was in the Mudra Kaserne on 13 and 19 May 1950. Members of the [REDACTED] said that a tank regiment and its headquarters was to be stationed in the barracks. 25X1
5. Several private buildings on August-Bebel-Strasse, housing a division headquarters, had been incorporated into the barracks block.
6. The houses north of Trinitatis Church, which had previously been requisitioned for use of the division headquarters, were turned over to the civil authorities.
